

EOSC Future User Group

EOSC Future User Group consists of researchers and actors from various scientific fields. It aims closely support the co-design of EOSC.

This wiki page is for the EOSC Future User Group members where they can find up-to-date information and material shared within the group in one place. This page will be supplemented and updated along the way.

What to expect?

Through the EOSC Future User Group, the EOSC Future project will assemble a team of "EOSC champions" from different scientific disciplines across the EU to help test and refine services and products. The Group will rely on surveys, focus groups, or testbed sessions to validate project outputs.
